

Mazenod Ladies Auxiliary Oblate Missionary Experience – Beijing, China

EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

February 2013

Dear Mazenod Mothers,

The Mazenod Ladies Auxiliary are hoping to organize a group of mothers to be part of an Oblate Missionary experience at The Little Flower Orphanage in Beijing, where we will spend time with orphaned babies and young children as well as with foster families that look after some of these children.

Through giving and receiving, we feel that such a trip would be a very rewarding and worthwhile experience for all involved.

The trip will include being a social service, a cultural visit and an opportunity to see what the Oblates experience in China.

There will be preparation evenings in the coming months to cover travel costs, medical, cultural and practical details.

The date that the trip is planned for is: 03rd – 13th September 2013.

We are beginning to look at numbers so that tickets and visas can be applied for, so a prompt response would be appreciated. Please note that there are limited places available.

For those ladies that would like to be part of this experience, please indicate your interest to Sandra Mancini via email to: sandracmancini@yahoo.com.au

Remember ladies, “Leave Nothing Undared for the Kingdom of God”

Yours sincerely,

Sandra Mancini
